BILL NO. 28-0159

Twenty-Eighth Legislature of the Virgin Islands

September 24, 2009

An Act amending title 1 Virgin Islands Code, chapter 11, section 171 commemorating laborers on Fireburn Day as a day to be revered and remembered in the Virgin Islands

PROPOSED BY: Senator Terrence "Positive" Nelson

1 WHEREAS, after the emancipation of enslaved Africans within the Virgin 2 Islands, work continued on the plantations; and

3 WHEREAS, competition from European sugar-beet growers and other sugar 4 producing countries had a negative impact on the Virgin Islands' plantation-based 5 economy during the nineteenth century; and

6 WHEREAS, after the abolition of slavery and the emancipation of the slaves, 7 plantation growers employed contract immigrant laborers and former slaves. To reduce 8 operating expenses and gain the competitive edge, employers began to exploit their 9 workers; and

10 WHEREAS, on January 26, 1849, the Danish Government issued a Labor Act 11 that restricted the bargaining power and mobility of plantation laborers by fixing their

1 wages and requiring that on October 1st they sign a contract to work on a particular 2 plantation for an entire year; and

3 WHEREAS, poor living conditions, low wages prevailed; and

4 WHEREAS, October 1st of each year ended a plantation laborer's contract, and 5 this gave the laborer the ability to contract on a neighboring plantation for the following 6 year; and

7 WHEREAS, on July 3, 1848, and every year after, employers promised increased 8 wages and better living and working conditions; and

9 WHEREAS, every year, the employers failed on all promises; and

10 WHEREAS, in 1878, after all peaceable attempts to demand a better quality of 11 life failed, women on St. Croix, known as Queens, Queen Mary Thomas, Queen Mathilde
12 Macbean, Queen Susanna "Bottom Belly" Abrahamson and Axeline "Queen Agnes" 13 Salomon, Rebecca Fredericks and others, together with men including: Joe Paris, James 14 de Silva, Joseph LaGrange, John Lewis, Thomas Graydon, Francis Leonard, William 15 Jones, William Arnold, and others organized a revolt to repeal the Labor Act of 1849, 16 demand comparable wages to that of St. Croix Central Factory workers, and obtain better 17 working and living conditions; and

18 WHEREAS, when their demands were not met, and lacking alternative means of 19 redressing their long-standing grievances, they burned down towns and sugar cane 20 plantations. By the end of the "Fireburn", which lasted one week, eight hundred seventy-21 nine acres from Estate Prosperity to Peters Rest on St. Croix were burned, including 43 or 22 more sugar plantations; and

23 WHEREAS, the 1878 labor revolt contributed to the achievement of fair labor 24 standards, wage increases, a higher standard of living and quality of life for laborers on 25 St. Croix; and

1 WHEREAS, it is befitting to commemorate the struggles and sacrifices of early 2 laborers and labor leaders by designating October 1 as Fireburn Day; Now, Therefore,

3 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Virgin Islands:

4 SECTION 1. Title 1 Virgin Islands Code, chapter11, section 171, is amended in 5 subsection (a) after “(Labor Day)” by inserting “October 1 (Fireburn Day)”.

6 BILL SUMMARY

7 The bill amends title 1, section 171 of the Virgin Islands Code to designate 8 October 1 of each year as Fireburn Day in commemoration of the sacrifices and struggles 9 made in the field of labor relations.
